

He's not a
Democrat or a Republican.

He's a patient.

Countless patients caught in a broken health care system are now getting caught in a political battle. When what they really need is access to affordable, quality care.

In our current system, children with severe congenital heart defects sometimes surpass lifetime insurance coverage limits when they are just toddlers.

For millions of families who've played by the rules, we need meaningful reform now.
